Hey guys, I heard the news you are firing Jason. Sorry it didn't work out, obviously I think you're going to have a lot of needs so recruiting ASAP might be in order (how about that compliance expert that applied as CEO?). I wanted to make sure Jason's access to the DC and RR bank accounts are terminated before he is fired. Brian and Justin will work on the other access points, but I think you'll need to be the one to notify CVB to disable his logins and any/all access he might have to any/all DC and RR bank accounts.

Regards,

Matt Martorello
